

Ethical Considerations for Parents Assignment

Understanding Your Child's Perspective

Think of a skill or routine you're working on right now. Ask yourself:

How might this feel from my child's point of view?

Is this skill meaningful to them—or just important to others?

Does the current approach feel supportive, or could it feel overwhelming or confusing?

How can you adjust the goal to make it more meaningful for your child?
